ALL-ATLANTIC MARINE ECOSYSTEMS: A SCIENCE TO POLICY DEBATE

October 3rd, 2:30pm to 5:30pm

Pavilhão do Conhecimento, Largo José Mariano Gago nº1, 1990-073 - Lisbon

The European funded projects AtlantECO, Mission Atlantic and AANCHOR are co-organising a science to policy debate in the framework of the TARA Microbiomes flagship mission, which will dock in Portugal on October 3rd, 2022. This science to policy debate is developed under the framework of the All-Atlantic Ocean Research and Innovation Alliance and aims to disseminate relevant marine ecosystem knowledge in the scope of the project activities that supports the European and international ocean governance agenda. The event will gather scientists and policy experts to discuss related capacity building and infrastructure capacity needs and solutions in the scope of the Atlantic marine cooperation.
